

Road Trip -- Leaf Peepers – Upstate PA

When it comes to Pennsylvania's beautiful landscapes, Upstate PA offers some of the best — especially during fall. Mountains and forests saturated with fiery seasonal colors frame the region and its tranquil communities, state parks, and bustling cities — like Scranton and Wilkes-Barre. Come take in autumn's awe-inspiring show in Upstate PA.

Day one:

Worlds End State Park

Talk about a sight to behold at Worlds End State Park. The 780-acre rugged and rustic park offers several vantage points to admire the autumn rainbow at its finest. Venture along any of the seven trails that cover 20 miles through the park, or take a short drive to Canyon Vista or High Knob Overlook to take in the picturesque scenery.

Eagles Mere

Even if you've never given vintage planes or cars a second thought, a visit to the Eagles Mere Air and Eagles Mere Auto Museums is a must on this trip. These eye-catching, fascinating time capsules of transportation history are only open for a short time each year — mid-May through mid-October, Saturdays, and Sundays. Want to see the aircrafts in action? If you stop by on a Sunday, you'll be able to watch pilots fly the vintage planes as they take off at the museum's private airport.

At Eagles Mere Museum, see why local residents are so proud of their picturesque village. The museum celebrates the town's unique history of glass making, farming, hotels and cottages, a narrow-gauge railroad, and the formation of Eagles Mere Lake.

Twin Spruce Tourist Home B&B | Groff Log Cabin

After a long day, refuel with fresh, homestyle food at Mary Beth's WestSide Deli — or try D&D Brew Works for a great fare paired with a local beer.

Put your feet up at the Twin Spruce Tourist Home B&B, a gorgeous 1885 Victorian home. Or, lose yourself in a Groff log cabin nestled in the woods of Sullivan County, in the Endless Mountains: cabins are fully furnished with a complete kitchen, and large deck.

Day two:

Tunkhannock

You'll find your next stop just 45 minutes away along scenic Route 6. Take a break from enjoying the fall foliage and go for a walk through the downtown streets of Tunkhannock on the town's historic walking tour. This self-guided tour will introduce you to the architectural beauty of 40 homes and buildings, as well as educate you on the history behind each structure.

Mormon Monument & Priesthood Restoration Site

Continue your history lesson at the Mormon Monument & Priesthood Restoration Site. The storied site welcomes visitors from international locations looking to learn more about the history of the Mormon faith. The restored homestead of church founder Joseph Smith has been meticulously restored and features farm houses, trails, and a state-of-the-art visitors center on the site where doctrine states that Smith was conferred the priesthood by John the Baptist.

Marie Antoinette Lookout

Travel just an hour down route 706 to see the Marie Antoinette Lookout, which offers a scenic view of the Susquehanna River and surrounding mountains. The French Azilum, a French refugee settlement was established between 1793 and 1803 on this location. While intended to be a place of escape for Marie Antoinette, the area now offers visitors a great location for the perfect selfie.

Warren Hotel | Maloney's

When daylight runs out, relax at a hometown pub, Warren Hotel, and enjoy fresh food made from scratch. Or, head back to the northern end and dine at Maloney's if you're looking for the best prime rib around and generous servings.

Beaumont Inn | Lynn-Lee House Bed & Breakfast

Snag one of the 10 rooms at the Beaumont Inn just a short drive to Dallas, Pa., and enjoy the fall scenery as you enjoy antique furnishings and modern-day amenities. For an old-fashioned stay, reserve a room at the Lynn-Lee House Bed & Breakfast, boasting antiques, period furnishings and wide board floors, beautiful quilts, fresh flowers, and more.

Day three:

Tuscarora State Park | Locust Lake State Park

Day three is all about parks! Visit Tuscarora State Park and nearby Locust Lake State Park for lakeside adventures or relaxation. Both are perfect for a family picnic. There's also plenty to do at Sweet Arrow Lake County Park, home to 60 acres of water and 123 acres of land. Crisp fall days offer the perfect weather perfect for hiking, boating, and fishing — all against the beautiful backdrop of mountainous fall foliage.

Galen Glen Winery | The Lodge at Sharp Mountain | Seasons Restaurant

When you're parked out, stop by Galen Glen Winery for a pre-dinner tasting. Then enjoy the spectacular autumn views at dinner — whether you choose The Lodge at Sharp Mountain or the Seasons Restaurant at the Mountain Valley Golf Course, you can't lose.

The Maid's Quarters Bed, Breakfast & Tearoom | Blue Mountain Summit B&B

Head south and book a room at The Maid's Quarters Bed, Breakfast & Tearoom for a quaint evening, or venture to the charming Blue Mountain Summit B&B for a secluded stay (near more golf!).
